CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY

ARTICLE I

Purposes and Essential Principles
Of the University

Creighton University is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nebraska primarily for educational purposes. The University was originally organized under the act of the Legislature of the State of Nebraska approved on February 27, 1879, Laws of Nebraska 1879, page 189. By Certificate of Amendment of its Articles of Incorporation filed in the office of the Secretary of State on March 3, 1960, the University elected to become organized under and subject to the Nebraska Nonprofit Corporation Act, Laws of 1959, Chapter 80. Under this Act and the University’s Articles of Incorporation, the affairs of the Corporation are managed by the Board of Trustees.

The primary purposes of the University are the encouragement of learning and the extension of the means of education. In common with other American social institutions, the University is dedicated to the service of its immediate community, the service of the nation, and the service of the world at large. The University fulfills its corporate purposes and carries out these dedications by means appropriate to a university in our society, that is, through teaching and research, by the discovery, preservation, and communication of knowledge. The University, therefore, and its Trustees in its behalf, recognize and accept three primary responsibilities: that of teaching, that of research, and that of community service.

Section 1. Powers of the Board –The Board of Trustees shall have and may exercise, subject to law and to the Articles of Incorporation, all the powers of the Corporation.

Section 2. Membership of the Board

a. Number –Subject to the provision of the Articles of Incorporation, the number of Trustees shall be set from time to time by resolution approved by a majority of the full Board.
b. Qualifications - At least seven members of the Board shall be members of the Society of Jesus, one of whom shall be the President of the University as an ex officio voting member. The Board shall also include:

(i) The President of the Creighton University National Alumni Board as an ex officio voting member, as provided by the 1988 Bylaws of the National Alumni Board.

No one who has attained the age of 75 years is eligible for reelection to the Board unless the Board by a two-thirds majority vote determines otherwise.

Section 3. Election of Trustees – The Trustees shall be divided into four classes. Each class shall be elected at the annual meeting and shall consist of the number of members of the class of the Board of Trustees whose terms of office expire at such annual meetings.

The election shall be by a majority vote to fill the vacancies resulting from the expiration of terms of office of the class whose terms expire in that year. Each Trustee so elected shall serve for a term of four years from the date of the annual meeting at which he or she is elected or from the date of the term to which he or she was appointed or until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the President of the Creighton University National Alumni Board shall serve a term of one year from the date of the annual meeting at which he or she is elected.

Section 5. Quorum – A majority of Trustees in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. The act of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees unless a greater vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, or the laws of the State of Nebraska.

Section 6. Action Requiring More Than a Majority Vote – The following acts require a vote of two-thirds of the full Board and a vote of a majority of the members of the Society of Jesus then in office:

Other regular meetings of the Board may be established, and the time and date thereof fixed, by resolution of the Board. No notice of regular meetings shall be required, and any notice of any regular meeting which is given need not state the purpose or purposes thereof.
Special meetings of the Board may be held at any time, on notice to each member of the Board given at least forty-eight hours prior to the time fixed for the meetings in such notice. The Chair of the Board or, in his or her absence, the Vice Chair of the Board, or any five members of the Board may call and give notice of special meetings of the Board. Notice of a special meeting shall be given by mail or by e-mail, directed to the residence or place of business of each Trustee, and shall specify the time, place, and purpose or purposes of the meeting. The place of any special meeting shall be at the principal office of the University in Omaha, Nebraska, unless the Board, by resolution, shall have previously authorized such special meeting to be held elsewhere.

Notice of any meeting may be waived by any Trustee either before or after such meeting, and such waiver shall, in respect to such Trustee giving the same, be fully as effective as notice given in accordance with these Bylaws.

If a quorum is not present at any meeting, the Trustees present may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the adjourned meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Members of the Board of Trustees, or of any Committee established by the Board or by these Bylaws, may participate in any regular or special meeting of the Board or of any such Committee, or conduct any meeting, through the use of any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting can simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Committee members shall be eligible for appointment to one or more additional terms. Any Committee member who shall cease to be a Trustee shall, at the same time, cease to be a member of the Executive Committee.
The Executive Committee shall be subordinate and responsible to the Board of Trustees. Between meetings of the Board, the Committee shall have all the powers and duties of the Board, except that the Committee shall not have the authority of the Board of Trustees in reference to amending, altering, or repealing the Bylaws; electing, appointing, or removing any members of any such committee or any Trustee or Officer of the Corporation; amending the Articles of Incorporation; adopting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another corporation; authorizing the sale, lease, exchange, or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation; authorizing the voluntary dissolution of the Corporation or revoking proceedings therefor; adopting a plan for the distribution of the assets of the Corporation; amending, altering, or repealing any resolution of the Board of Trustees which by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered, or repealed by such Committee; or effecting any major change in the operations of the University.

The Chair of the Board shall be, ex officio, Chair of the Executive Committee. In his or her absence at any meeting of the Committee, the Committee members present shall designate an acting chair of such meeting.

Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called at any time by the Chair of the Committee or, in his or her absence, by the Vice Chair of the Board or, in his or her absence, by the President of the University, and may be held without notice whenever and wherever a majority of the Committee is assembled. The affirmative approval of a majority of the Committee members present at any duly constituted meeting of the Committee shall be sufficient to authorize any action in respect of which authority is given by these Bylaws to the Committee.

Minutes of all proceedings of the Executive Committee shall be maintained and copies thereof shall be distributed regularly to each member of the Board, after such minutes shall have been approved by the Committee. At each and every meeting of the Board of Trustees, the proceedings and actions taken by the Executive Committee since the last meeting of the Board shall be reported to the Board.

Section 11. Section 2. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is
